MISSOULA--

A workshop entitled "Ovulation Method of Birth Control" will be held in the Women's Resource Center (WRC) at the University of Montana at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 6, for all interested women.

A $5 fee will be charged for the workshop, which is sponsored by the WRC. Persons attending the workshop are encouraged to bring paper and pencil for taking notes.

The workshop will include information on detecting fertility through identification of cervical mucus, how hormone cycles affect mucus and fertility and identifying fertility periods.

A follow-up on the workshop will be held within six weeks. A definite time and place will be announced.

For further information, interested persons may visit the WRC, located on the mall level of the University Center, or phone 243-4153.
